2018 ANNUAL SESSION OF THE PARLIAMENTARY CONFERENCE ON THE WTO

WTO: The way forward

Geneva, 6-7 December 2018

*Organized jointly by the Inter-Parliamentary Union and the European Parliament
(WTO Headquarters, Room CR1)*

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ORGANIZATION OF WORK

This document is designed to supplement the Practical Information note, which was distributed together with the invitation letter.

Seating arrangements in the meeting room

As usual, lots have been drawn among the delegations participating in the session to determine the order of seating in the sector allocated for participants.

The name of the delegation of South Africa was drawn, and this parliamentary delegation has accordingly been placed in the front row, on the left-hand side of the room facing the podium. Other delegations follow in English alphabetical order.

The number of seats allocated to each delegation in the meeting room depend on the number of members in each delegation and on the room's seating capacity. The sector for observer delegations is situated in the right-hand corner of the room.

The seats of each parliamentary delegation as well as those of observers from among international organisations will be marked by country/organization sign-boards.

Debates

As indicated in the Practical Information note, all debates will take place in plenary and all participants and observers have equal speaking rights. To enable the session to achieve its expected goal and to facilitate the necessary interplay of ideas, the Steering Committee has made the following arrangements:

- (a) There will be no pre-established list of speakers on any agenda item. Delegates wishing to take the floor should use special registration forms to notify the Chairman of the session of the specific point they wish to address or question they wish to ask. The forms will be available in the meeting room;
- (b) The debate will be interactive, no formal statements will be delivered and the speakers shall use microphones available at each seat. Both participants and observers are invited to participate in the debate either by making brief statements or by asking questions and should refrain from reading out pre-prepared statements;
- (c) Subject to any other arrangements made by the President in the light of the circumstances, statements may not exceed three minutes. Delegates may, however, speak several times on each item, particularly in response to other statements;
- (d) The President will give the floor to delegates in an order that is conducive to a real exchange of opinions. When calling on speakers, the President will announce the subsequent speaker;
- (e) There will be no formal record of the debate.

Draft outcome document

The preliminary draft outcome document, prepared by the European Parliament as the Conference co-organizer, was posted on the IPU website in October 2018. Parliaments were invited to submit their amendments to the preliminary draft in writing by 15 November 2018. The Steering Committee will review the proposed amendments at its meeting on 6 December and elaborate a revised draft, to be submitted for adoption by the Conference as a whole at its concluding sitting. There will be no reopening of the substantive debate during this sitting.

Documents

The only official documents of the session will be its programme, the draft outcome document, discussion papers prepared by the rapporteurs, the list of participants and the information notes prepared by the Secretariat of the session.

Should participants and observers wish to distribute their own documents and other material pertaining to the themes of the session, they may use a table provided for that purpose in the immediate vicinity of the meeting room.

List of participants

A provisional list of participants will be distributed together with information kits. For technical reasons, it will not be possible to publish a revised list on the spot. The final list will be made available on the IPU website (<https://ipu.org/event/annual-session-parliamentary-conference-wto-0/documents>) soon after the session. In order to ensure its accuracy, participants and observers are requested to advise the Registration Desk of any corrections to be made to the provisional list to by 3 p.m. on Friday 7 December, at the latest.

Reception

All participants and observers are kindly invited to a cocktail reception which will take place at 6.30 p.m. on Thursday 6 December on WTO premises, in the Atrium. No special transport service is envisaged after the end of the reception.
