Sri Lanka

Decision adopted by the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians at its 163rd session (virtual session, 1 to 13 February 2021)

LKA-63 – D.M. Dassanayake

Alleged human rights violations
- Murder

A. Summary of the case

Mr. D.M. Dassanayake, Minister of Nation-Building and a member of the Parliament of Sri Lanka, was killed on 8 January 2008, along with a bodyguard, in a roadside Claymore mine attack while on his way to parliament. The subsequent arrest of a key Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) suspect operating in Colombo led to the arrest of other suspects, whose revelations resulted in the recovery of the remote-control device used to detonate the explosive that killed Mr. Dassanayake. Three suspects have been indicted. One confessed and was found guilty in 2011, and trial proceedings continued against the other two until one of them died in 2015. The trial against the remaining suspect is now said to be near completion. The case was to be called to fix a further trial on 15 January 2021.

The murder of Mr. Dassanayake took place during the violent conflict between the Sri Lankan authorities and the LTTE, during which serious violations and abuses of human rights and related crimes were committed by both parties.

After a new government had taken up office in Sri Lanka in early 2015, in October of the same year the United Nations (UN) Human Rights Council adopted resolution A/HRC/RES/30/1, supported by Sri Lanka, in which the Council: (i) welcomed the recognition by the Government of Sri Lanka that accountability was essential to uphold the rule of law and to build the confidence of the people of all communities of Sri Lanka in the justice system; (ii) noted with appreciation the proposal of the Government of Sri Lanka to establish a judicial mechanism with a special counsel to investigate allegations of violations and abuses of human rights and of violations of international humanitarian law, as applicable; (iii) affirmed that a credible justice process should include independent judicial and prosecutorial institutions led by individuals known for their integrity and impartiality; and (iv) affirmed in that regard the importance of Commonwealth and other foreign judges.

Following presidential elections in Sri Lanka in November 2019, which brought to power Mr. Gotabaya Rajapaksa, the Sri Lankan Government withdrew in February 2020 from the UN Human Rights Council’s cooperation framework set out in resolution A/HRC/RES/30/1.

In its latest report of January 2021 on “Promoting reconciliation, accountability and human rights in Sri Lanka”, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights stated that “developments over the past year have fundamentally changed the environment for advancing reconciliation, accountability and human rights in Sri Lanka, eroded democratic checks and balances and civic space, and reprised a dangerous exclusionary and majoritarian discourse. These trends threaten to reverse the limited but important gains made in recent years and risk the recurrence of the policies and practices that gave rise to the grave violations of the past”.

B. Decision

The Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians

1. Thanks the parliamentary authorities for the latest information provided;

2. Recalls the important principle that justice delayed is justice denied; calls on the relevant authorities to expedite the completion of the legal proceedings against the single suspect in the case of Mr. Dassanayake; and wishes to be kept informed in this regard;

3. Recalls that parliament, in the exercise of its oversight function, can help ensure that justice is effectively pursued and delivered, especially when it concerns a former member; wishes, therefore, to ascertain the views of the current parliament as to the possibility of it regularly monitoring the legal proceedings so that they are indeed speedily completed;

4. Remains convinced that this case also has to be seen in the context of the need for a comprehensive and serious approach by the Sri Lankan authorities to promote truth, justice and reconciliation for the crimes committed during the violent conflict between the authorities and the LTTE; is deeply concerned, therefore, at the latest UN report that refers to the clear intention of the current Sri Lankan Government to move away from honouring earlier international commitments to promote accountability and reconciliation in this regard; and urges the Sri Lankan authorities to return to the cooperation framework set up under UN Human Rights Council resolution A/HRC/RES/30/1, including by accepting offers of assistance and seeking opportunities to benefit from international expertise that would allow them to make progress in the pursuit of justice and reconciliation;

5. Requests the Secretary General to convey this decision and the request for information to the relevant authorities, the complainant and any third party likely to be in a position to supply relevant information;

6. Decides to continue examining the case.
