A. Summary of the case

This case concerns 96 members of the Yemeni Parliament, all elected during the 2003 parliamentary elections for a six-year term and who remain members of parliament in accordance with the Yemeni Constitution. Since 2014, they have allegedly been subjected to various human rights violations, including attempted murder, abduction, arbitrary detention and destruction of property.

Since the beginning of the political crisis in 2011 and the outbreak of the war in Yemen in 2015, two different factions claim to embody the Yemeni Parliament: a Sana'a-based faction under the control of the Houthi militia and a faction based in Seiyun and comprising parliamentarians who fled Sana'a. This faction is aligned with the internationally recognized government of President Abdrabbuh Mansur Hadi. The present case concerns 77 members of parliament who fled Sana'a and neighbouring governorates that are allegedly under the control of the Houthi militia, and 19 members who remained in Sana'a and allegedly suffered attacks carried out by the coalition forces led by Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates.

The complainants in the case regarding the 77 members of parliament allege that the violations were committed by the Houthi militia, and took place in different governorates in Yemen, including Sana'a and other parts of Yemen under the control of the internationally recognized government. These complainants state that, due to the violations and security situation, the majority of members are now in exile.

On 2 March 2020, the Houthi militia arbitrarily sentenced to death 35 members of parliament for "having taken actions threatening the stability of the Republic of Yemen, its unity, and security of its territory". The aforesaid complainants also stated that, on 9 February 2021, the Houthi militia sentenced to death 11 additional members of parliament. The parliamentarians were allegedly sentenced in absentia following the conclusion of trials marred with irregularities and which failed to comply with international norms and standards, as reported by the United Nations and other international organizations. The complainants added that, following the issuance of the death

Case YEM-COLL-02

Yemen: Parliament affiliated to the IPU

Victims: 96 male members of parliament (79 opposition members)

Qualified complainant(s): Section I.(1)(a) and (b) of the Committee Procedure (Annex I)

Submission of complaints: May 2019, October 2019

Recent IPU decision: October 2020

Recent IPU mission(s): - - -

Recent Committee hearings: Hearing with the delegation of Yemen at the 141st IPU Assembly (October 2019); hearing with Mr. Sultan Albarkani, Speaker of the Seiyun-based parliament during the 165th session of the Committee (May 2021)

Recent follow-up:

- Communication from the complainants: February 2021
- Communication addressed to Yemen: April 2021
- Communication addressed to the complainants: April 2021

sentences against the lawmakers, the Houthi militia confiscated their property and financial assets, ransacked their homes and ordered their families to leave their houses.

The Houthi militia allegedly increased their harassment of Yemeni pro-government lawmakers following the latter's participation in a parliamentary meeting held in Seiyun in April 2019, which was called by the internationally recognized President Abdrabbuh Mansur Hadi. Additionally, the complainants stated that, on 3 April 2021, the Houthi militia unlawfully approved the stripping of the membership of 44 members of the House of Representatives, therefore rendering their constituencies vacant with the aim of electing new members in violation of the Yemeni Constitution.

The complainants in the case of the 19 members of parliament ¹ who remained in Sana'a allege that the violations were committed by the coalition forces as part of their support to the Government of Yemen in regaining power in Sana'a and northern parts of Yemen.

In 2019 and 2020, the parliamentary faction controlled by the Houthis in Sana'a provided substantial information on alleged violations committed by the coalition forces against the 19 members of parliament who reportedly continued to exercise their mandate in Sana'a, while failing to convey information on the cases of the 77 parliamentarians and the human rights violations they have allegedly suffered since 2014, or the steps taken to help identify and hold to account those responsible.

According to the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), the conflict in Yemen has so far claimed the lives of 233,000 people.

B. Decision

The Governing Council of the Inter-Parliamentary Union

1. Notes that the collective complaint concerning the situation of Mr. Said Moubarak Douman, Mr. Ali Hussein Aishal, Mr. Ghaleb Abdul Kafi Al-Qurashi, Mr. Abbas Ahmed Al-Nahari, Mr. Abdul Rahman Saleh Musleh Moezb and Mr. Hamid Abdallah Al Ahmar, all members of the House of Representatives in Yemen, is admissible, considering that the complaint: (i) was submitted in due form by a qualified complainant under section I.1(b) of the Procedure for the examination and treatment of complaints (Annex I of the Revised Rules and Practices of the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians); (ii) concerns incumbent members of parliament at the time of the initial allegations; and (iii) concerns allegations of threats and acts of intimidation, lack of due process in proceedings against parliamentarians and failure to respect parliamentary immunity, allegations that fall under the Committee's mandate; and notes that these cases have been merged with the present case, which brings the total number of parliamentarians in this complaint to 96;
2. Is deeply alarmed that 46 members of parliament have been arbitrarily sentenced to death by the Houthi-controlled self-styled court in Sana'a in what appears to be a "fatwa", hence a call for their explicit killing by anyone, including members of the public, who are in a position to do so;
3. Underlines that these arbitrary measures constitute a direct and imminent danger to the lives of the parliamentarians subject to them; and urges those responsible to refrain from jeopardizing the physical integrity of the members of parliament and from using collective punitive measures against members of their families who remained in Sana'a, including the arbitrary eviction of women and children from their homes;
4. Is aware of the exceptional situation in which Yemen finds itself and the formidable challenges that exist to law and order; emphasizes, nevertheless, that the human rights of members of the Yemeni House of Representatives and those of the people of Yemen should be upheld at all costs; calls on all parties to the conflict to ensure accountability for violations and abuses suffered by all parliamentarians and protect their fundamental human rights;

¹ The Committee ruled on the admissibility of the cases concerning these parliamentarians in October 2020.

5. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the situation with the complainants and any third party likely to be in a position to supply relevant information;
6. Requests the Committee to continue examining this case and to report back to it in due course.
