3. With a view to ensuring a smooth and cohesive functioning of the IPU and the effective implementation of its decisions, at each Assembly the IPU President, assisted by the Secretary General, shall hold a joint meeting with the Chairs of the geopolitical groups and the Presidents of the Standing Committees. The Presidents of the subsidiary bodies of the Governing Council, the President of the Bureau of Women Parliamentarians and the President of the Bureau of Young Parliamentarians may also be invited to take part in this meeting.

IV. Agenda – Reports and Resolutions - Order of debates

Rule 10

1. The agenda of the Assembly, approved on the occasion of its previous session, shall include a General Debate with an overall theme, normally two subject items proposed by the Standing Committees and relating to their own field of competence (cf. Standing Committees, Rule 6.1 and Statutes, Art. 14.1) as well as possible reports submitted by the Standing Committees.
2. The agenda shall be communicated to all Member Parliaments and Associate Members by the Secretary General at least four months before the opening of the Assembly.

Rule 11 (cf. Statutes, Art. 14.2)

1. Any Member Parliament may request the inclusion of an emergency item in the Assembly agenda. Such a request must be accompanied by a brief explanatory memorandum and a draft resolution, which clearly define the scope of the subject covered by the request, and indicate how it is in line with the principles and values of the IPU and its Strategy. The IPU Secretariat shall communicate the request and any such documents immediately to all Member Parliaments.
2. Consideration and acceptance by the Assembly of a request for the inclusion of an emergency item in its agenda shall be subject to the following provisions:
 - (a) A request for the inclusion of an emergency item must relate to a recent major situation of international concern on which urgent action by the international community is required and on which it is appropriate for the IPU to express its opinion and mobilize a parliamentary response. Such a request must receive a two-thirds majority of the votes cast in order to be accepted.
 - (b) The Assembly may place only one emergency item on its agenda. Should several requests obtain the requisite majority, the one having received the largest number of positive votes shall be accepted.
 - (c) The authors of two or more requests for the inclusion of an emergency item may combine their proposals to present a joint one, provided that each of the original proposals relates to the same subject.
 - (d) The subject of a proposal that has been withdrawn by its authors or rejected by the Assembly cannot be included in the draft resolution submitted on the emergency item, unless it is clearly referred to in the request and title of the subject adopted by the Assembly.

Rule 12

Before taking a decision on a request for the inclusion of an emergency item and after hearing the opinion of the Steering Committee on its admissibility, the Assembly shall hear a concise explanation from the sponsor and a statement from one speaker holding a contrary opinion, neither of whom shall enter into the substance of the matter.

Rule 13

As a rule, the Assembly will appoint two rapporteurs for each subject item proposed by a Standing Committee. These rapporteurs will prepare a succinct, action-oriented draft resolution and an accompanying explanatory memorandum. Member Parliaments and Associate Members may contribute to the drafting process by submitting their brief written inputs in one of the official languages of the IPU (cf. Assembly, Rule 37.1). The arrangements for the submission of such written inputs shall be indicated in the convocation of the Assembly (cf. Standing Committees, Rule 13.1). Throughout the process, a human rights-based approach and gender mainstreaming shall be duly applied.

Rule 14

The procedure for the submission of draft resolutions on the emergency item shall be determined by the Assembly on the recommendation of the Steering Committee.

Rule 15

1. The Assembly shall start by holding a General Debate with an overall theme. During this General Debate, delegates may also address the political, economic and social situation in the world. This debate may give rise to the adoption of an outcome document, as decided by the Assembly Steering Committee and approved by the IPU Executive Committee.

2. The subject items placed by the Assembly on its agenda shall be debated by the Standing Committees, which shall prepare draft resolutions for consideration by the Assembly (cf. Statutes, Art. 13.2).

3. The emergency item shall be dealt with according to an ad hoc procedure approved by the Assembly, on the proposal of the Steering Committee.

4. The Assembly shall vote on the texts submitted by the Standing Committees, without holding a debate on the substance of these questions.

Rule 16

1. No debate may be opened or vote taken on a question which the Assembly has examined and on which it has taken a decision.

2. However, in exceptional circumstances, the Steering Committee may submit to the Assembly a motion proposing that a procedural decision already taken be reconsidered; a positive decision on such a motion shall be based on a consensus among the delegations.

V. Amendments

Rule 17

1. Any delegate may submit amendments relating to the draft resolutions prepared by the rapporteurs on the subject item included in the agenda approved by the Assembly. They shall be deposited with the IPU Secretariat no later than 21 days before the opening of the Assembly. However, the Forum of Women Parliamentarians shall be permitted to submit amendments incorporating a gender perspective at any time prior to the closure of the first sitting of the respective Standing Committee (cf. Standing Committees, Rule 13.2).

2. Sub-amendments relating to these draft resolutions may be submitted until the Standing Committee adopts the draft resolution intended for the Assembly.

3. In order to facilitate the work of the Committee, the rapporteurs may propose a new text in order to give due consideration to proposed amendments and sub-amendments.

4. When the Assembly is called upon to take a decision on the draft resolution prepared by the Standing Committee, the only amendments in order, other than those of a purely drafting nature, shall be those incorporating the content of earlier proposals submitted within the statutory deadlines but not accepted by the Standing Committee.

5. When the Assembly is called upon to take a decision on any other draft resolution, amendments and sub-amendments may be submitted until the Assembly adopts the texts to which they relate.

Rule 18

1. Amendments and sub-amendments shall relate directly to the text. They may only call for an addition, a deletion or a modification to the initial draft, without having the effect of changing its scope or nature.

2. The President of the Assembly shall determine whether or not amendments and sub-amendments which are to be voted on in plenary sitting of the Assembly are in order.

Rule 19

1. Amendments and sub-amendments shall be voted on before the text to which they relate.

2. If two or more amendments apply to the same words in a draft resolution, the one which is furthest removed from the text under consideration shall have priority over the others and shall be put to the vote first.

3. If two or more amendments are mutually exclusive, the adoption of the first shall imply the rejection of the other amendment(s) bearing on the same words. If the first amendment is rejected, the next amendment in order of priority shall be put to the vote; the same procedure shall be applied for each of the following amendments.

4. In case of doubt regarding the priority, the President shall decide.

Rule 20

Unless the President decides otherwise, the only speakers on an amendment or a sub-amendment shall be the sponsor, one delegate holding a contrary opinion and, if need be, the Rapporteur of the Standing Committee (cf. Standing Committees, Rule 26).

VI. Speaking rights - Order - Procedural motions

³ In these Rules, whenever the words “young parliamentarians” are used, they should be construed as referring to parliamentarians who are below the age of 40 years.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 above, the President may, at the end of the corresponding sitting, give the floor briefly to a delegation wishing to exercise its right of reply.

Rule 23

1. As a general rule, delegates shall take the floor in the order in which they have asked to speak.
2. However, the registration of speakers for the General Debate shall be governed by a specific procedure established by the Assembly.
3. Speakers may only be interrupted by other delegates on a point of order.
4. The President shall rule immediately and without debate on all points of order.

Rule 24

Rule 25

The President shall deal immediately with any incident which may arise during the meeting and, if necessary, take any measure required to restore the normal working of the Assembly.

Rule 26

1. Priority to speak shall be given to delegates wishing to propose:
 - (a) Adjournment of the debate sine die;
 - (b) Adjournment of the debate;
 - (c) Closure of the list of speakers;
 - (d) Closure or adjournment of the meeting; or
 - (e) Any other motion having a bearing on the conduct of the meeting.
2. These procedural motions shall have priority over the substantive questions; debate on the latter shall be suspended while the former are considered.
3. The mover shall make a brief presentation of the motion without entering into the substance of the question under debate.
4. During a debate on procedural motions, only the mover of the proposal and one delegate holding a contrary opinion shall be heard, each of whom may speak for not more than three minutes, after which the Assembly shall take a decision.

Rule 27

Debates of the Assembly shall be public. They shall be held in camera only if the Assembly so decides by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

The full text, excluding such parts or paragraphs as may have been rejected, shall subsequently be put to the vote as a whole on the understanding that, should all the parts and paragraphs of the text be rejected, the text shall be considered as rejected in toto.

Rule 32

1. Nobody may interrupt a vote once it has commenced, except to obtain clarification on the manner in which the voting is being conducted.
2. Delegates who wish to explain their vote briefly may be authorized to do so by the President, after the voting has taken place.
3. No explanation of vote shall be admissible on amendments and procedural motions.

Rule 33

1. A vote may only take place if at least half of the delegations participating in the Assembly are represented in the meeting room at the time.
2. For each Assembly, the quorum shall be established on the basis of the number of delegations effectively participating at the first plenary meeting. This quorum shall be announced by the Secretary General at that time.

Rule 34

1. Subject to the provisions of Rules 11.2, 16.2 and 28, the Assembly shall take decisions by a majority of the votes cast.

3. Participation by IPU Member Parliaments in the Governing Council is limited to titular members. It will not be possible to appoint substitute members under Rule 27 of the Rules of the Governing Council except in case of force majeure preventing a titular member from attending the session. The existence of such a situation must be certified by the Speaker of the parliament or the President of the IPU Group concerned through a written communication to the Secretary General.

¹ In these Rules, whenever the words "representative", "member", "observer" and "auditor" are used, they should be construed as referring to both women and men.

3. Registration

1. Registration will take place through an online system in accordance with established practice. Each IPU Member Parliament participating in the session will communicate the name, gender and contact details of its representatives as well as the scan of an official letter from the Speaker of parliament or the President of the IPU Group.

In view of the virtual nature of the session and of technical limitations, if a vote is required on matters other than the election of the President and the members of the Executive Committee, it shall be taken by roll call in accordance with normal practice. In the event of a roll-call vote, should any member fail to cast a vote for any reason during the roll call, that member shall be called upon a second time after the conclusion of the initial roll call. Should the member fail to cast a vote on the second roll-call, the member shall be recorded as absent.

2. At the request of the President or Executive Committee, the Secretary General will transmit to Member Parliaments any such proposal for consideration under this written silence procedure.
3. The communication will contain the text of the proposal(s) to be considered under this written silence procedure and will set a date for the receipt of any objection. Any such objection shall be conveyed in writing, including by email, and addressed to the Secretary General. The objection must have been received within 15 days from the date of dispatch of the communication.
4. In the absence of the receipt by the stipulated deadline of 15 days of written objections from one third or more of Member Parliaments, the proposal concerned will be considered as having been validly adopted by the Governing Council.
5. The Secretary General will communicate the outcome of the written silence procedure to all Member Parliaments as soon as possible after the set deadline referred to above. In the case of a proposal that is adopted pursuant to the written silence procedure, the date of the Secretary General's communication to that effect will be date of adoption of the proposal.
6. Without prejudice to the above, a Member Parliament may explain its position in respect of a proposal that is subject to the written silence procedure by submitting a written statement relating thereto, for posting on the IPU website. The ballot shall only be accessible to members through a personal authentication system following instructions to be provided by the Secretary General. Members shall submit their ballot online or as advised by the Secretary General

6. Members shall have 24 hours from the opening of the vote by the President to cast their ballot. The President will remind members of the approaching deadline. The voting period shall not suspend the conduct of the business of the session.

7. Once the voting period closes, the results of the votes shall be verified by two tellers appointed by the Governing Council pursuant to Rule 29 of the Rules of the Governing Council, with the assistance of the Secretariat. An independent auditor will provide the tellers with a technical assessment of the voting process and results.

8. The President shall announce the result of the secret ballot in a public meeting. He/she will suspend the business of the session for this purpose if necessary. If no candidate receives an absolute majority of the votes cast on the first secret ballot in accordance with Rule 34 of the Rules of the Governing Council, a second secret ballot shall be held between the two candidates having received the highest number of votes in the preceding ballot in accordance with the same procedure as described above. Rules and Practices of the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians¹

Adopted in February 1989, revised in May 2007, March 2014, April 2015, April 2017 and October 2024.

The functioning of the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians is governed by the "Procedure for the examination and treatment of complaints", which came into force on 1 January 1977, and by the subsequent decisions taken by the Governing Council and by the Committee itself.

I. Composition of the Committee

Rule 1

1. The Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians (hereinafter called the Committee) shall be composed of 10 members of Member Parliaments of the IPU, elected by the Governing Council in an individual capacity on the basis of their competence, commitment to human rights and availability. They shall have a good command of at least one of the IPU's two working languages: English and French. The IPU Secretary General shall ensure that candidates standing for election, the geopolitical groups and IPU Member Parliaments are fully aware of the requirements stated above.
2. Committee members shall be elected for a single five-year term. In case of resignation, loss of parliamentary mandate or death of a member, or if the rights or affiliation of the parliament to which the member belongs are suspended, his/her term shall automatically come to an end. Members who are absent for two consecutive sessions without a valid reason may lose their seat by decision of the Governing Council following a recommendation by the Committee. Upon loss of Committee membership, another person shall be elected from the same geopolitical group for a new, full five-year term.
3. The composition of the Committee should reflect an equitable geopolitical distribution of seats.
4. The Committee as a whole should be gender-balanced and in principle comprise five men and five women. In any case, there shall be no fewer than four members of either sex.

II. Objectives of the Committee

Rule 2

1. The Committee shall defend the human rights of current, and in certain circumstances, former members of a national Parliament whenever their rights are at risk or appear to have been violated.
2. The Committee shall aim to:
 - (a) Prevent possible violations;
 - (b) Put an end to ongoing violations; and/or
 - (c) Promote State action to offer effective redress for violations.
3. The Committee shall examine, on the basis of a detailed procedure (cf. Annexes I to IV), complaints of alleged violations of which it is seized by a qualified source.

¹ In these Rules and Practices, whenever the words "Secretary General", "President", "member" and "complainant" are used, they should be construed as referring to both women and men.

4. The Committee shall use all possible means to give visibility to its work in defence of the human rights of parliamentarians. The absence of a complaint shall not preclude efforts by the Committee to advocate respect for the human rights of parliamentarians and raise awareness of violations and risks faced by parliamentarians.
5. In carrying out its mandate, the Committee shall apply international, regional and national human rights standards as well as pertinent recommendations emanating from relevant United Nations, regional and national institutions.
6. The Committee shall strive to take into account gender equality concerns in its working methods, processes and objectives.
7. The Committee may suggest that capacity-building assistance be offered to the parliament and other State institutions where the alleged violation has taken place in order to address underlying concerns giving rise to the submission of the complaint.
8. The Committee may request the IPU Secretary General to organize events or conduct studies to address thematic or regional concerns which appear in its case-load and have wider ramifications for the rights of parliamentarians and/or the functioning of parliaments. The Committee may also make specific suggestions to other IPU bodies.

III. Methods of work

Sessions

Rule 3

1. Barring exceptional circumstances, the Committee shall meet three times a year: an extended session shall be held at IPU Headquarters in January or June/July and regular sessions shall be held in the days leading up to and during each of the two IPU Assemblies.
2. The Committee's sessions shall be held in camera.
3. The Committee shall set the dates of its next sessions in the light of proposals made by the IPU Secretary General.
4. During sessions, the IPU shall provide interpretation from and into English, French and Spanish. Case files and other documentation shall be provided in English and French only. In the event that neither English, French nor Spanish is their mother tongue, members may bring interpreters to interpret into and from an additional language. Members shall be responsible for covering the costs of such interpretation and informing the IPU Secretariat sufficiently in advance so that practical arrangements can be made. The members shall ensure that the interpreters are of high quality and respect the confidentiality of the Committee's proceedings.

President and Vice-President

Rule 4

1. The Committee shall elect its President and Vice-President for one year. Both shall be eligible for re-election. The Committee will strive to ensure that the President and Vice-President are of opposite sexes.
2. The Vice-President shall replace the Committee President in the latter's absence. In case of resignation, loss of parliamentary mandate or death of the President, or if the rights or affiliation of the parliament to which the President belongs are suspended, his/her functions shall be performed by the Vice-President. Should the Vice-President also become subject to any of the situations mentioned in the previous sentence, the Committee shall elect a new President and Vice-President for a one-year term.

Agenda

Rule 5

1. The provisional agenda of the Committee shall be drawn up by the IPU Secretary General, in consultation with the Committee President.
2. The agenda shall include an item on follow-up action by Committee members and Member Parliaments on decisions adopted on individual cases.

Quorum

Rule 6

At least half of the number of members in exercise of their functions shall constitute the quorum for deliberating and taking decisions.

Confidential and public nature of the Committee's work

Rule 7

1. The Committee's deliberations and all correspondence and documents submitted to it shall be kept confidential at all times. The Committee members shall undertake personally to respect this rule of confidentiality. The Committee shall call on the parties directly concerned to ensure that its deliberations, documents and correspondence submitted to it or sent by it remain confidential.
2. The Committee's decisions shall be made public as a matter of principle unless it believes there are overriding reasons to keep a decision confidential. Such reasons include strong indications that:
 - (a) only confidentiality will promote a resolution of the case;
 - (b) a public decision will put the security of the victim and/or complainant at risk;
 - (c) the concerns in the case are not sufficiently clear; and/or
 - (d) the complainant is using the Committee purely for political gain.

In respect of confidential cases, the IPU Secretary General shall communicate the decision only to the parties concerned. The Committee may also mandate the Secretary General to convey a confidential decision to other parties which it deems to be in a position to help it in the examination of the case. The Secretary General shall not be held responsible for the reproduction and distribution of the Committee's confidential decisions and other submissions by the parties concerned.

3. When the Committee meets during IPU Assemblies, its President shall report on its work to the Governing Council, to which it shall submit draft decisions for adoption on individual cases which, if adopted, shall enjoy the support of the full IPU membership. Should the Committee President be unable to attend, the report shall be presented by the Vice-President or, in his/her absence, by another Committee member designated by the Committee. The report to the Council may also contain one or more personal testimonies from the persons affected or their representatives. The text of all adopted decisions shall make mention of any clear reservation on the substance of the decision expressed by the delegation of the country concerned and/or other parties.

Organization of examination of cases

Rule 8

1. The Committee shall prioritize discussion of and action on its cases. To this end, the Committee shall always examine cases which are submitted to it for the first time. It shall further prioritize examination of cases with significant developments, cases of ongoing risk to life, physical integrity and liberty or continuing serious intimidation and cases in which no developments have occurred but which require a strategic discussion and/or shift of focus.
2. Previous decisions on cases shall remain applicable as long as they have not been superseded by a new decision of the Committee.
3. Once a year, during an extended session held in January or June/July, the Committee shall examine all the cases before it and shall plan, to the extent possible, its activities for the next 12 months, including the hearing of delegations, sources and other parties and the organization of on-site missions, visits and trial observations. The foregoing shall not preclude the discussion or planning of activities at the Committee's other sessions.
4. At the extended session, the Committee shall decide for each case whether or not it will be the subject of a decision at that session. The Committee may decide, in respect of the other cases, whether, in the absence of a decision, specific follow-up action is required. The Committee shall adjourn the adoption of any decision on the other cases to a future session on the understanding that its concerns as expressed in its most recent decisions in those cases shall remain valid.

Use of experts, hearings, missions, visits and trial observations

Rule 9

The Committee may consult experts, hold hearings, carry out on-site missions and visits and mandate the observation of trial proceedings in accordance with established rules and criteria (cf. Annexes III and IV).

Recusal of Committee members

Rule 10

In principle, Committee members shall not attend and participate in deliberations and decisions on any case concerning a member of parliament who is a national of his/her country. The Committee may, however, invite the member concerned to provide his/her observations on the case.

Decisions

Rule 11

As a general rule, the Committee's decisions shall be taken by consensus. In the absence of consensus, the Committee shall decide by a majority of the members present.

Organization of work between sessions

Rule 12

1. Within 14 days after the end of the session, the IPU Secretary General shall provide Committee members with a succinct summary of what, if any, decision was taken for each case at the session.
2. Between sessions, the IPU Secretary General shall promote implementation of the case decisions and other follow-up action identified by the Committee at its previous session(s) and take steps in respect of any new or other cases warranting an immediate response. With regard to the other cases, the IPU Secretariat shall closely monitor developments.
3. The Committee members, and first and foremost its President, may be consulted where appropriate between sessions on the submission of new cases and developments in cases already under examination by the Committee, as well as on the organization of on-site missions, visits and trial observations.
4. Between sessions, the Committee may exceptionally adopt a public or confidential decision in the event of an urgent situation requiring its immediate attention. To this end, should the IPU Secretary General receive information from a qualified source warranting an urgent Committee decision, he/she shall contact the Committee President, and with the latter's approval, inform all other members, suggest a course of action and ask for their feedback within 48 hours, or in absolute emergencies, 24 hours.

Parliamentary solidarity

Rule 13

1. The work of the Committee shall be based on the principle of parliamentary solidarity. It shall therefore seek, where useful, to engage with IPU Member Parliaments in facilitating satisfactory settlements in the cases before it and to give prominence to parliamentary action taken to promote such solutions.
2. Following each Committee session, the IPU Secretary General shall invite all IPU Member Parliaments to take action to follow up the decisions on individual human rights cases and to report on any action taken. In so doing, the Secretary General may pay special attention to certain cases warranting parliamentary action.
3. The Committee may also take other steps to promote parliamentary solidarity. Such efforts may include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) Requesting the IPU Secretary General to write to the chairpersons of the geopolitical groups about the public cases pending in or outside their regions;
 - (b) Inviting, at a session during the Assembly, one or two chairpersons of geopolitical groups to discuss implementation of decisions affecting their (or another) region;
 - (c) Publicly informing the IPU membership about follow-up action taken by each IPU Member Parliament on decisions adopted in human rights cases;
 - (d) Entrusting Committee members with the task of presenting its work to the meetings of the Executive Committee, geopolitical groups, the Association of Secretaries General of Parliaments and, possibly, the Standing Committee on Democracy and Human Rights during IPU Assemblies; and

- (e) Organizing, as a matter of principle, an information session for the parliamentary and other authorities of the host country of an IPU Assembly.

Adoption and amendment of the rules

Rule 14 (cf. Statutes, Art. 23)

One or more of the members of the Committee and/or the IPU Secretary General may propose amendments to the Rules for discussion by the Committee. The Committee shall discuss such proposed amendments and adopt, with the support of an absolute majority of the members present at the time of the vote, its own views thereon. Should these views favour specific amendments to the Rules, such amendments shall be submitted to the Governing Council for approval.

Secretariat

Rule 15

The Committee shall have a Secretary and a team of IPU staff to assist it in its day-to-day work. The Secretary shall be under the direct authority of the IPU Secretary General and, along with the former's team, cooperate closely with other IPU staff to ensure the effectiveness of the Committee's work.

In order to do so, he/she shall be authorized to request additional information from the author(s) of the complaint, as well as from the authorities of the State concerned or, if appropriate, from third parties able to supply such information. He/she shall avail himself/herself of any document relevant to the study of the case, particularly the pertinent texts of national laws and international legal instruments and any document from competent international or regional organizations.
5. The IPU Secretary General shall request additional information only when there are grounds for presuming that the complaint is admissible. In the absence of such grounds, the Secretary General may refrain from conducting a preliminary investigation.
6. The identity of the author(s) of complaints shall be disclosed only with his/her/their agreement and when such disclosure is deemed appropriate.

11. This Procedure shall be applicable to members of parliament who are or have been subjected to arbitrary actions during the exercise of their parliamentary mandate, whether the Parliament is sitting, in recess or has been dissolved as the result of unconstitutional or extraordinary measures. The Committee shall also be competent to examine complaints regarding former members of parliament when the alleged arbitrary actions refer directly to events that took place when the individual was still a member of parliament.

12. With respect to alternate members of a national parliament, admissibility shall depend on the nature of the function involved and how it is exercised.

13. Other standards and criteria of admissibility may be determined in individual cases by the Committee, based on its experience.

14. Decisions on admissibility and non-admissibility of complaints shall be transmitted to the parties directly concerned, together with a statement of the grounds of such a decision.

V. Examination of complaints

15. For each case, the IPU Secretary General shall present a report containing the following:

- ♦ Information on the source(s) of the complaint and the date(s) of the communication(s);
- ♦ An analytical summary of the allegations and any other information on file;
- ♦ Legal references and background (national and international);
- ♦ Observations on the formal admissibility of the communication(s); and
- ♦ Information on the preliminary investigation of the case and/or previous treatment thereof, particularly the date and content of the reply from the authorities of the country in question to such requests for information as may have been addressed to them.

16. The Committee shall examine each of the cases before it on the basis of the file compiled for that purpose by the IPU Secretary General.

17. The Committee shall seek to establish the facts of a case. For this purpose, the IPU Secretary General shall invite the authorities to comment on the information provided by the author of a complaint, and the author of a complaint to comment on the information provided by the authorities. The Secretary General may also seek information from any other reliable source likely to provide relevant information.

18. The Committee shall seek, to the extent possible and as appropriate, to establish contact with the parliamentarian concerned, first of all, in order to ascertain that he/she has no objection to the Committee examining his/her case and, second, to ensure a continuous flow of first-hand information regarding his/her case.

19. The Committee shall do everything possible to foster a dialogue with the authorities of the countries concerned, first and foremost their parliament, in the pursuit of a satisfactory settlement.

20. The IPU Secretary General shall inform the Committee of any technical cooperation project the IPU is conducting or intends to conduct in a country in which it is examining a case. It may invite the Secretary General to take steps to ensure that its concerns in that case are taken into consideration in order to ensure coherent action by the IPU.

21. The Committee shall engage, including where possible through an official partnership, with relevant international and regional political structures, first and foremost their parliamentary arm, and/or their human rights mechanisms. At the national level, the Committee shall engage, where possible and useful, with in-country UN missions, national human rights institutions and national human rights organizations. The Committee shall also engage directly with parliamentary human rights committees in those countries that have cases before it and in countries that take a keen interest in human rights issues abroad.

VI. Consultation of experts

22. Experts may be consulted when the Committee deems it appropriate.

VII. Hearings

23. The Committee may hold hearings in accordance with the established rules and criteria (cf. Annex III).

VIII. Missions, visits and trial observations

24. In specific cases, the Committee may decide to carry out an on-site mission and/or visit or mandate the observation of trial proceedings. Such action shall be taken in accordance with established rules and criteria (cf. Annex IV).

IX. Closure of cases

25. The Committee shall continue in principle to examine a case at future sessions as long as a satisfactory settlement has not been reached. The Committee may decide to close a case, however, if:

- (a) in its view a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached;
- (b) the complainant has not provided any updated information in spite of repeated requests and the complainant's ability to do so; or
- (c) the complainant states that further action by the Committee is no longer useful.

26. In cases where current or former parliamentarians or their direct representatives are complainants in the case, their response, or absence thereof, shall take precedence over the response of other complainants in the matter. The Committee may reserve the right to re-open a case in the light of new information provided by complainant(s).

27. In cases where a confidential case has been satisfactorily settled, the Committee may decide to announce publicly its closure and state the reasons thereof.

28. Whenever the Committee adopts a decision to close a case, that decision shall be communicated to the parties directly concerned.

Annex II

Submission of complaints

The Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians is competent to examine complaints of alleged human rights violation(s) affecting members of national parliaments who are currently exercising their mandate.¹ The Committee is also competent to examine complaints regarding former members of national parliaments when the alleged violation(s) are directly related to events that took place when the individual was still a parliamentarian.

The complaint form is available on the IPU website here as a PDF document that can be completed on screen or printed. The list of questions therein is intended to help the complainant submit a complaint which is as complete, precise and concise as possible, so as to facilitate the work of the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians. The complainant is strongly encouraged to provide all the requested information to enable the Committee to examine the case. However, should there be serious impediments preventing a complainant from providing some of the requested information at this time, the complainant is invited to explain the reasons why.

If you wish to submit a complaint concerning the situation of several members of parliament, you must complete a separate form for each member. If you are multiple complainants submitting a complaint about the same case, you may submit a joint form if you wish.²

¹ This also covers a situation in which the national parliament is in recess or has been dissolved as the result of unconstitutional or other arbitrary measures.

² If there is more than one complainant, please identify one complainant as the designated focal point to liaise with the Committee, and complete questions 1 and 2 providing information concerning this person while sending the names and capacity of other complainants in a separate note or in the email conveying the complaint.

Annex III

Arrangements concerning hearings

Adopted in July 1983, revised in May 2007 and March 2014

I. Hearings with the Committee in corpore

- (a) Hearings may be held with parliamentary authorities, other competent authorities, the complainant(s), the alleged victim(s), representatives of relevant international and national organizations and experts;
- They may be held:
- (i) on the initiative of the Committee itself;
 - (ii) at the request of any of the above-mentioned entities or persons.
- (b) The Committee shall seek to organize a hearing of its own volition and accept a request for a hearing whenever it considers this to be useful and appropriate in the examination of a case.
- (c) Requests for a hearing with the Committee shall be made in good time prior to the corresponding session so that the Committee, or its President, may assess the advisability of such a procedure and give its consent.
- (d) In order to ensure the effectiveness of this procedure, the hearing shall be held in such a way as to meet the needs of the Committee. With this in mind:
- ♦ At the opening of the hearing, the President of the Committee may specify to the person(s) concerned the conditions in which he/she/they will be heard and inform him/her/them of the elements of the case on file to which the hearing will relate, if necessary stating the main points requiring clarification;
 - ♦ The time available to a person(s) to make his/her/their preliminary statement shall be established in advance. The person(s) shall then be invited to reply as concisely as possible to specific questions. The Committee may decide that, between the time of the general statement (which will enable it to assess the intentions of the person concerned) and the time devoted to questions, the person(s) concerned shall leave the room to enable the Committee to identify the points requiring clarification; and
 - ♦ The Committee shall decide if it is necessary to ask the person(s) being heard to confirm or clarify in writing certain points of his/her/their statements.
- (e) Hearings shall preferably take place in one of the working languages of the Committee.

II. Hearings with the Committee President or a designated member(s)

The Committee may decide to designate its President or another member(s) to meet in camera and hear any entities or persons mentioned under I (a).

Annex IV

Principles and criteria for conducting on-site missions, visits and trial observations

Adopted in April 1986, revised in May 2007 and March 2014

I. Principles and objectives

1. In order to advance its work to defend the human rights of parliamentarians and to make progress towards the satisfactory resolution of one or more cases, the Committee may decide to carry out a mission or visit, or to observe a trial.
2. Such missions and visits may be envisaged for countries in respect of which cases are pending before the Committee or for countries that are the seat of relevant international or regional organizations or that have national parliamentary committees, other institutions and/or sources of information that may assist the Committee in its work.
3. In exceptional circumstances, a mission or visit may also address political or parliamentary challenges that go beyond the Committee's specific mandate but that need to be addressed in order to resolve the specific cases dealt with by the Committee.
4. When the Committee is not in session, a decision to dispatch a mission, make a visit and/or observe a trial may be taken by correspondence. In particularly urgent or serious circumstances, the decision may be taken by the Committee President in consultation with the IPU Secretary General. Any decision to this effect shall immediately be communicated to the Committee members.
5. Missions shall normally comprise at least two delegates, if possible at least one man and one woman, and extend over several days on the basis of a comprehensive programme that shall include meetings with all relevant authorities, the complainant(s) and other parties in a position to assist the Committee in its work.
6. Visits shall normally be carried out by a single Committee member or another person mandated by the Committee.
7. The length of trial observations shall depend on the schedule of hearings. As part of a trial observation, the observer shall meet with the relevant authorities in the case, in particular the prosecutor's office and the court authorities, as well as the complainant(s)/alleged victim(s) and defence counsel.
8. Trial observations shall be carried out by legal experts and/or members of parliament. Their competence in and impartiality vis-à-vis the case at hand shall be beyond doubt. They shall not at the same time be members of the Committee.
9. A representative(s) of the IPU Secretariat, where possible, shall accompany on-site missions and visits.
10. A mission or visit may only take place with the explicit approval of the authorities of the country in question. In cases where the parliament is represented in the IPU, the necessary contacts and approaches shall be made through that parliament or with its approval. This rule shall apply to all missions or visits except in cases where no interaction is foreseen between the delegation and the government or parliamentary authorities. In the case of a trial observation, the IPU Secretary General shall inform the authorities of the country concerned, in particular the parliament and the authority before which the proceedings are taking place, of the IPU's presence.

11. A mission or visit shall generally aim to:

- ♦ Make known to the authorities of the country in question or the institutions in that country the interest which the IPU and, through it, the international community, has in the treatment and fair settlement of an individual case;
- ♦ Gather a maximum amount of first-hand or reliable information on the case so as to enable the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians and the IPU Governing Council to take a decision based on full knowledge of the facts;
- ♦ Enquire into respect for basic human rights in the case under consideration on the basis of applicable national legislation and international legal instruments. When a case concerns allegations that legal proceedings brought against a (former) parliamentarian are not founded in law, a trial observation mission may be sent to enquire into respect for basic fair trial guarantees; and
- ♦ Contribute, as much as possible, to the settlement of the case in accordance with human rights principles.

12. A mission, visit or trial observation may thus in no way lead, either directly or indirectly, to the expression of any value judgment whatsoever of a situation in general or political regime, whatever their nature.

II. Funding

13. Missions, visits and trial observations shall as a general rule be funded by the core budget of the IPU.

III. Responsibilities of the authorities in missions and visits

14. In the case of missions and visits, the authorities of the country concerned, first and foremost the parliament, are responsible for arranging the requested meetings with relevant authorities, providing local transport to the delegation for the duration of the mission or visit and ensuring the protection of the delegation. The authorities shall also assist in any other way possible with the effective fulfilment of the mission's or visit's mandate.

IV. Composition of delegations

15. The following individuals may be designated to conduct missions and visits:

- ♦ Current and former members of the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians;
- ♦ Other parliamentarians with relevant expertise;
- ♦ The IPU Secretary General or his/her representative; and
- ♦ Human rights specialists.

16. In principle, the Committee shall decide at each of its sessions on the composition of delegations for proposed missions and visits. In deciding to designate one or more of its members to conduct a mission, it shall take into account criteria such as familiarity with the country's legal and political system, command of relevant languages for the mission and absence of potential challenges, whether perceived or real, to the effectiveness of the mission or visit due to the member's nationality and/or political activities. Committee members shall be required to share with the Committee before a decision is taken on the composition of the delegation any information concerning them that may adversely affect the effectiveness of the mission or visit.

17. Should the designated member(s) be prevented from participating in the mission or visit, the IPU Secretary General shall consult the Committee President on the replacement of the member(s) in question and, with the President's approval, take the necessary steps to ensure that the mission or visit can be carried out.

V. Conduct of missions, visits and trial observations

18. The persons entrusted with a mission, visit and trial observation shall receive a copy of this document. They shall base their action on the principles advocated by the IPU.

(a) Accreditation and terms of reference

19. The member(s) of the delegation shall be given several copies of a letter of accreditation and, if necessary, written terms of reference. The latter shall clearly indicate the purpose of the mission.

20. Unless the Committee or the IPU Governing Council decides otherwise, the members of a delegation may not accept to act on behalf of and receive funding from any body or organization in the same country and during the same period.

(b) Concerted action

21. Concerted action shall be taken at all stages of a mission. If necessary, consultations shall take place during the mission between the members of the delegation and the IPU Secretary General.

22. Barring instructions to the contrary from the Committee or the IPU Governing Council, the members of a delegation shall not accept individual invitations to visit the country in question.

23. If necessary, a preparatory meeting shall be held, prior to the visit, preferably at IPU Headquarters in Geneva.

(c) Fulfilment of the mandate

24. The delegation shall strive to gather information from all parties concerned:

- (i) Competent authorities (governmental/parliamentary/judicial);
- (ii) Parliamentarian(s) whose situation is the subject of the mission;
- (iii) Third parties in a position to supply reliable information (sources of communication/relatives of the victim(s)/lawyer(s)/parliamentarian(s) witness(es)/human rights organizations). The delegation may make direct contact with and hear witnesses as early as during the preparatory meeting.

25. The delegation shall ensure that no witnesses are present during its contacts with the parliamentarian(s) whose situation is the subject of the mission - including when the parliamentarian is detained or imprisoned - and with third parties in a position to supply reliable information. If interpretation is necessary, the delegation shall ensure that the interpreter respects the rule of confidentiality (see paragraph 32 below).

26. Members of delegations shall make every effort never to expose the parliamentarian(s) in question and the sources of confidential information to risks; in the case of direct contacts, they must receive assurances that no reprisals of any kind will be taken against the person(s) concerned because of such contacts. If necessary, they shall ensure that the person(s) concerned is/are able to bring to the attention of the IPU any measures taken against him/her/them after meeting with the delegation.

27. Should the delegation feel that the basic conditions for the fulfilment of its mandate are not met, it shall terminate the visit, if possible after consulting the President of the Committee and the IPU Secretary General.

(d) Documentation made available to delegations

28. All delegations shall receive as complete a set of documents as possible to ensure the effective fulfilment of their mandate.

(e) Contacts with the press

29. The IPU Secretariat shall consider, in consultation with the delegation, how to give visibility to the mission, visit or trial observation, including its preliminary findings.

30. The IPU Secretariat and the delegation may decide to organize a press conference towards the end of the mission or visit and, exceptionally, the trial observation should this be considered useful in helping implement and disseminate the preliminary findings of the delegation.

31. With regard to missions carried out in relation to confidential cases, in general no contact with the press will be made.

(f) Interpreters

32. If necessary, the mission shall be assisted by an interpreter. Depending on the situation, the interpreter may be made available to the mission by:

- (i) the Parliament of the country in question;
- (ii) in the event of a trial which takes place in a country of which the Parliament is not a Member of the IPU, by the defence counsel of the parliamentarian concerned; or
- (iii) by the IPU Secretariat. The delegation shall ensure that interpreters who are not under oath respect the rule of confidentiality.

VI. Reports on missions, visits and trial observations

(a) General principles

33. The report shall be submitted to the Committee, which shall examine it in camera. For the missions or visits referred to in paragraph 3 of this Annex, the report may also be submitted to other IPU bodies.

34. The report shall, where useful, be conveyed as soon as possible to the authorities of the country in question and the complainant(s) so as to enable them to forward their observations. The report may also be shared for information and comments with other interlocutors which the delegation met.

35. The Committee shall judge the way in which it is to report publicly on the mission or visit or trial observation, including whether or not to submit the entire report or part thereof to the IPU Governing Council.

36. Any report or part thereof which has been made public by the Committee, either directly or through the IPU Governing Council, may be used as such provided that mention is made of its origin.

37. The report shall be the property of the IPU.

(b) Guidelines for the presentation and content of the reports

(i) Presentation of reports

38. The report shall be transmitted to the Committee Secretariat as soon as possible, and in any event, within 30 days of the completion of the mission, visit or trial observation.

39. The report shall be drafted preferably in English or in French.

40. The delegation shall clearly state if certain parts of the report are to remain confidential.

41. Likewise, special mention shall be made of any minority opinion held by a member of the delegation.

42. Should a mission or visit or trial observation consist of several stages, the delegation shall submit a provisional report as soon as possible (e.g. preliminary observations on a trial hearing), it being understood that the final report (e.g. comments on the judgment handed down by the court) shall be submitted subsequently.

(ii) Content of reports

43. Reports should contain information on the following points in particular:

- ♦ Reference to the decision by the Committee and/or IPU Governing Council;
- ♦ Places and dates of the mission, visit or trial observation; members of the delegation;
- ♦ Contacts with the authorities of the country (parliamentary / governmental / judicial);
- ♦ Contacts with the parliamentarian(s) who is/are the subject of the mission (dates, places and conditions of meeting; brief outline of his/her/their situation; summary of the explanations and opinions voiced by the person(s) concerned; brief account - if applicable - of the place and conditions of detention);
- ♦ Contacts with third parties;
- ♦ Prospects for a settlement of the case; and
- ♦ Conclusions and recommendations.

44. Reports of trial observations shall, in particular, contain information on the following:

- ♦ The origins of the trial and its context;
- ♦ Information concerning the defendants;
- ♦ The court seized of the case(s);
- ♦ The prosecution and the defence;
- ♦ The charges brought;
- ♦ The laws and decrees applied;
- ♦ The case made by the prosecution and a summary or the text of the indictment;
- ♦ The nature of the defence and a summary of the text(s) of the case made by the defence;
- ♦ The ruling (if handed down);
- ♦ The conduct of the trial;
- ♦ Comments concerning the conduct of the trial, the ruling (if handed down) and the legal provisions applied; and
- ♦ The appeal: the possibilities of appeal; the intentions of the defence and a comment on the likelihood of an appeal succeeding.

Annex

Procedure for selecting the Secretary General of the Inter-Parliamentary Union

Vacancy announcement

The selection process for the post of Secretary General will commence 15 months before the expiry of the current term of the Secretary General.

A vacancy announcement containing a description of the functions of the Secretary General and the skills and qualifications required of candidates will at that time be circulated to all Member Parliaments of the IPU.

The announcement will also be placed on the IPU's website and shared with the United Nations system. All parliaments will be invited to publicize the announcement in the manner they deem fit.

At the same time as it finalizes the vacancy announcement, the Executive Committee will agree on a set of minimum requirements that have to be met by candidates in order to be retained during the initial selection process.

Presentation of candidatures

Candidatures can be submitted by the candidates themselves or by one or more Member Parliaments of the IPU.

Candidatures shall be submitted within a period of four months from the date of the official vacancy announcement.

Each candidature shall be submitted in one of the two working languages of the IPU – English and French – and shall consist of a letter of motivation accompanied by a curriculum vitae.

Each application will be received in confidence and recorded by the Director of Support Services, who will act as Registrar and will also respond to enquiries from candidates.

Shortlisting of candidates

At the end of the period for submitting candidatures, the President of the IPU, assisted by the Registrar, will examine all candidatures to ensure that they meet the minimum requirements for the post contained in the vacancy announcement. Any candidate who does not meet these requirements will be eliminated from the process.

The complete documentation submitted by all candidates who meet the minimum requirements will be reviewed by the President of the IPU and the Vice-President of the Executive Committee, who will together draw up an initial shortlist consisting of the 20 best qualified candidates.

The complete documentation of these candidates will be shared with each member of the IPU Executive Committee together with a report from the President on the conduct and outcome of the pre-selection procedure.

After studying the candidatures, each member of the Committee will indicate up to a maximum of five candidates which he/she proposes to maintain on the shortlist.

The Committee members will communicate their preferences to the IPU Secretariat through a confidential procedure within a month of receiving the documentation.

The five candidates who receive the highest number of preferences will be short-listed.

Interviews of selected candidates

The five short-listed candidates will be invited to the Assembly, where the final selection will take place.

The Executive Committee will devote one extra day during that Assembly to interviewing the candidates. Each candidate will be interviewed for an equal length of time. They will be invited to present their candidature for 10 minutes and will then take questions from the members.

Before starting the interviews, the Executive Committee will have agreed upon a set of questions which will be addressed to all candidates. Members of the Executive Committee will also be able to address follow-up questions to the candidates as well as questions relating to the candidate's individual presentations.

After the interviews, the members of the Executive Committee will exchange views on the candidatures. They will seek to determine if one or more of the candidates can be excluded at this stage of the procedure on the grounds that they either clearly do not meet the requirements of the post or fail to muster sufficiently wide support. To this end, the Executive Committee may resort to straw polls or similar techniques.

At the end of its deliberations, the Executive Committee will forward two or more candidatures for consideration by the IPU membership present at the Assembly.

Presentation of candidatures during the Assembly

Each candidate retained by the Executive Committee will have equal opportunities to present his/her candidature to each of the geopolitical groups, in accordance with procedures set by them.

The candidates will also be heard by the Forum of Women Parliamentarians, in accordance with a procedure determined by its Bureau.

The candidates will present their candidature during the last sitting of the Governing Council. They will each be given five minutes for this purpose.

Election

The Governing Council will elect the Secretary General by secret ballot.

For the purpose of identifying the candidate most capable of securing a broad if not all-inclusive consensus among the Member Parliaments, the Governing Council will elect the Secretary General with an absolute majority of the votes cast, as per Council Rule 34.1\(b\).

If there are more than two candidates and none receives the required majority in the first round of voting, the candidate who received the least support will be eliminated and a new round of voting held.

This procedure will be repeated until such time as one candidate receives an absolute majority of the votes cast.

The successful candidate will be appointed by the Governing Council for a four-year term.

Financial Regulations of the Inter-Parliamentary Union¹

In addition to the budget estimates for the following financial period, the Secretary General shall present to the Executive Committee and the Governing Council, for their information, provisional estimates for the next succeeding year, or such further periods as the Governing Council shall require.

¹ In these Rules, whenever the word "officer" is used, it should be construed as referring to both women and men.

Should the Governing Council reject the draft budget proposed by the Executive Committee, it shall either designate a balanced working group to study the question and submit a revised draft budget, possibly extending its sitting for that purpose, or shall decide to convene extraordinary sessions of the Executive Committee and Governing Council before the end of the year in question in order to find a solution and adopt the budget.

6. Appropriations shall remain available for 12 months following the end of the financial year to which they relate, to the extent that they are required to discharge obligations in respect of goods supplied and services rendered in the financial year and to liquidate any other outstanding legal obligations of the year.
7. At the end of this 12-month period, the remaining cash balance of these appropriations shall be subject to the same procedure as specified in Rule 4.5 above.
8. The Secretary General shall consult the Executive Committee, whenever possible, before transferring amounts from one budget heading to another within the total amount appropriated and in the course of a single financial year.
9. The Secretary General shall be authorized to make such transfers not exceeding 3 per cent of the total appropriation for any fiscal period without prior consultation of the Executive Committee, but shall submit them to the next session of the Executive Committee for its opinion before the consideration of the accounts by the Governing Council.

V. Provision of Funds

Rule 5 (cf. Statutes, Art. 5)

1. The budget appropriations, as well as the possible supplementary appropriations, shall be financed by:
 - (a) Contributions from the Member Parliaments and Associate Members of the IPU;

Practical modalities of the rights and responsibilities of observers at IPU meetings¹

Approved in April 1999 and amended in April 2003, May 2006, April 2009, October 2014, March 2018 and March 2023.

1. International organizations that can be invited as observers to IPU meetings are understood to include: (a) organizations of the United Nations system and related organizations; (b) regional, subregional and geopolitical parliamentary assemblies or associations; (c) worldwide non-governmental organizations; (d) international political party federations; and (e) organizations with which the IPU shares general objectives and has established a close and mutually beneficial working relationship (other partner organizations, including organizations holding permanent observer status with the UN General Assembly).
2. Observer status may be granted only to those organizations whose general objectives, principles and values are shared by the IPU. Permanent observer status may only be granted at the recommendation of the IPU Executive Committee, upon a careful examination of the structure, funding, mission statement, programme of work and track record of the organization concerned.
3. There shall be a distinction between those observers invited on a regular basis (permanent observers) and others invited on a "one-off" basis in the light of the items placed on the agenda of an Assembly. Permanent observer status will be reserved for parliamentary organizations, in line with IPU's commitment to foster inter-parliamentary dialogue and cooperation, as well as for those partner organizations with which the IPU works closely and on a regular basis.
4. Observers will be expected to pay a modest registration fee, to be determined by the Executive Committee, for participation in IPU Assemblies. The United Nations and related organizations, as well as observers contributing directly to the programme of the Assembly, will be exempt from such fees.
5. Observers will be entitled to register a maximum of two delegates to Assemblies of the IPU. However, each programme and organ of the United Nations will normally be allowed to send one delegate. Seating arrangements at Assemblies will be made accordingly.
6. Observers will be entitled to register one speaker in plenary debates of the IPU Assembly and its Standing Committees. However, each programme and organ of the United Nations will be allowed to register one speaker each.
7. Observers will not enjoy the right of reply or the right to raise points of order.
8. In the General Debate of the Assembly, the speaking time of observers will be limited to three minutes. Some flexibility will be shown to executive heads of organizations within the United Nations system who wish to address the IPU.
9. Observers will not enjoy voting rights and the right to submit candidatures.
10. Representatives of international organizations having particular expertise in a subject considered by the Assembly may be invited by the Presidents of Standing Committees, with the authorization of the Committee, to be present in an advisory capacity to provide technical advice, if need be, during the work of a drafting committee.

¹ In these Modalities, whenever the words "delegate" and "representative" are used, they should be construed as referring to both women and men.

11. Observers cannot present draft resolutions or amendments. They may, however, make information available according to modalities established by the Secretary General.
12. International organizations having special competence in an item placed on the Assembly agenda may be invited by the Secretary General to provide an information document on the item.
13. Observers may be invited by the IPU President to address the Governing Council in exceptional circumstances only.
14. An evaluation of the situation of observers will be made every four years. Such a periodic review will be undertaken by the Executive Committee on a dual basis: (i) a factual note by the IPU Secretariat on the actual participation of each observer in the period under review, and (ii) the views of the observers themselves regarding their interest in being represented at IPU meeting.
