Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, additional safety measures have been put place. Please see the Public Health Information Factsheet at this link for detailed information.

Participation

In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and social distancing regulations in place in Austria, the number of participants in the Summit will be limited to the Head of Delegation and a maximum of three other delegates.

The Summit will be composed of three thematic interactive sessions in which the Heads of Delegations will be able to participate. Due to the limited time available for each session and in order to allow the participation of all those interested in the sessions, advance registration to take the floor will be required. Please indicate in which session(s) the head of the delegation would prefer to participate by email to counter-terrorism@ipu.org and peace@ipu.org by 6 September at the latest.

Languages

Interpretation at the Summit will be provided into the four working languages of the IPU (Arabic, English, French and Spanish), as well as German. Delegations that wish to rent an interpretation booth for their national language should contact Ms. Sally-Anne Sader (sas@ipu.org) by 12 August at the latest. All related costs will be borne by the parliament making the request.

Accreditation

Due to strict security measures in effect at the ACV, every delegate attending the Summit will need an identity badge in order to enter the ACV premises. Online registration is now closed. If you wish to attend the Summit, please send full details to registration@ipu.org by 16 August at the latest. Due to security measures in place, it will not be possible to register for the event on the day of the Summit.
