TUN-06 – Abir Moussi

Alleged human rights violations

- ✓ Threats, acts of intimidation
- ✓ Impunity
- ✓ Other violations¹

A. Summary of the case

A member of the Assembly of People's Representatives, Ms. Abir Moussi, was the victim of acts of verbal and physical violence and sexist, degrading insults directly linked to the exercise of her parliamentary mandate. The abuse suffered by Ms. Moussi is allegedly based, on the one hand, on the fact that she is the leader of an opposition political party and, on the other hand, on her gender. Ms. Moussi has also received death threats, which she has taken seriously and reported to the police, who are providing her with security.

The complainant's allegations were supported by videos and excerpts from social media posts that helped identify the alleged perpetrators, including two members of the majority party in the Assembly, Mr. Seifeddine Makhoulouf and Mr. Sahbi Smara. The latter physically assaulted her during Assembly proceedings on ¹ The acts of violence suffered by Ms. Moussi were reportedly gender-based, that is, "violence which is directed against a woman because she is a woman or that affects women disproportionately". For a full definition, see general recommendation No. 35 on gender-based violence against women, updating general recommendation No. 19 of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), United Nations.

 - and letter to the President of the Republic (October 2021)
- Communication to the complainant: November 2021

30 June 2021. The two members of parliament were apparently not punished, as before the suspension of the Tunisian parliament on 25 July 2021 no disciplinary measures had been taken by the parliamentary authorities against either of them or against other members of the same political party accused of harassing Ms. Moussi. According to the complainant, these attacks are aimed at intimidating the member of parliament in order to remove her from political life.

In their letters of November 2020 and April and May 2021, the parliamentary authorities stated that they had strongly condemned the actions of member of parliament Mr. Makhlouf, as had the parliamentary committee set up by the Speaker of Parliament in this regard. In their letter, received on 14 April 2021, the parliamentary authorities stated that an initiative to create a code of parliamentary ethics and conduct as a mechanism to eliminate violence in parliament is under discussion. The authorities also expressed their willingness to cooperate with the Inter-Parliamentary Union in order to restore a climate of peace and eliminate all forms of violence in parliament. In their letter of May 2021, the parliamentary authorities nevertheless pointed out that Ms. Moussi had allegedly caused disturbances and verbally abused other members of the Assembly, allegations which were refuted by the complainant.

After months of prolonged political crisis in the country, President Kaïs Saïed suspended parliament on 25 July 2021, invoking Article 80 of the Constitution. President Saïed also lifted the parliamentary immunity of all members of parliament, dismissed the Prime Minister and his government and assumed all state powers. Although their parliamentary immunity was lifted, none of the members of parliament guilty of the acts of violence were apprehended to answer for their actions towards Ms. Moussi.

At the hearing with the IPU Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians on 26 November 2021, during the 143rd IPU Assembly (November 2021) in Madrid, the complainant explained that Ms. Moussi had been the victim of serious harassment and threats for several years, which justified the police protection provided by the Ministry of the Interior that she had enjoyed long before she became a member of parliament. However, the threats against her reportedly intensified when she became a member of parliament in 2019. According to the complainant, the police protection provided to her is ineffective given the recent assaults she suffered. The complainant added that the parliamentary authorities had no mechanism to review disputes between members of parliament. However, the acts of violence suffered by Ms. Moussi were, rather, offences punishable by law, meaning that the parliamentary authorities should have forwarded her complaints to the Public Prosecutor, which was not done.

The complainant also pointed out that Ms. Moussi, like all members of the Assembly of People's Representatives, was suffering from the consequences of the suspension of parliament and the campaign of defamation and harassment against all members of parliament.

B. Decision

The Governing Council of the Inter-Parliamentary Union,

1. Notes that the complaint concerning Ms. Moussi's situation, a member of the Assembly of People's Representatives of Tunisia at the time she received threats and suffered sexist acts of intimidation and verbal and physical violence, was declared admissible by the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians under its Procedure in February 2021;
2. Thanks the Tunisian parliamentary authorities for the information they provided in their letters received in November 2020 and April and May 2021 respectively; and welcomes the willingness of the parliamentary authorities to settle Ms. Moussi's case and to cooperate with the Committee;
3. Regrets, nevertheless, that, despite the exchanges held on Ms. Moussi's situation with the parliamentary authorities when they were still in office, they did not take the necessary steps to prevent the assaults committed against her on 30 June 2021 by two other members of parliament on parliamentary premises; also regrets the decision of the Bureau of the Assembly to remove Ms. Moussi's security escort within parliament, given the real and serious threats against her and the prevailing general climate of violence in parliament;

4. Strongly condemns the acts of violence committed against Ms. Moussi and all other forms of violence suffered by her, as well as all demeaning practices aimed against female parliamentarians; stresses that such attacks are a step backwards and represent a danger both to women's political rights and to the proper functioning of parliament; and calls on the competent authorities to take appropriate action to hold to account those responsible for the acts of violence against Ms. Moussi;
5. Affirms that all parliamentarians, in particular female Tunisian parliamentarians, should be able to perform their political duties in a respectful environment in which their rights are effectively and seriously defended; wishes, with the support of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, to assist the Assembly of People's Representatives, when it resumes its functions, in strengthening democracy, promoting parliamentary dialogue and combating the intimidation of women in politics; and sincerely hopes to be able to help in the drafting of the code of parliamentary ethics and conduct;
6. Expresses its concern about the suspension of the Tunisian Parliament under extraordinary measures, which were supposed to be of limited duration but which are still in place, thereby plunging the Tunisian Parliament into a situation of total uncertainty; stresses that this suspension directly affects the individual rights of members of parliament and deprives Tunisian citizens of political representation; points out in this respect that the achievements of the young Tunisian democracy that emerged from the Arab Spring should be maintained by all possible means; and looks forward to the resumption of the work of the Tunisian Parliament as soon as possible;
7. Requests the Secretary General to convey this decision to the President of the Republic, the complainant and any third party likely to be in a position to supply relevant information to assist it in its work;
8. Requests the Committee to continue examining this case and to report back to it in due course.
