Forum of Young Parliamentarians

Provisional agenda

1. Adoption of the agenda
2. Opening remarks
3. Updates on youth participation
   The Forum will take stock of recent developments in global and national youth participation in parliament. The young parliamentarians will reflect on successes and current challenges, draw conclusions and make recommendations.

   The President of the Board will give an overview of what the IPU has done since March 2022 to support youth participation and the activities planned for 2022 and 2023. Members of the Forum will be invited to discuss both these past and planned future activities.

4. Contribution to the work of the 145th Assembly
   In line with the objective of the Forum to mainstream youth perspectives in the work and decisions of the Assembly, members of the Forum will exchange views from a youth perspective on:
   • The theme of the General Debate of the 145th Assembly
   • The draft resolution under consideration at the 145th Assembly, entitled Parliamentary impetus to local and regional development of countries with high levels of international migration and to stopping all forms, including state-sponsored, of human trafficking and human rights abuses, to be considered by the Standing Committee on Democracy and Human Rights.

5. Q&A session or panel debate

6. Preparations for the 146th Assembly (March 2023)
   As per usual practice, the Forum will prepare for the 146th Assembly by discussing from a youth perspective the forthcoming resolutions on the agendas of the IPU Standing Committees: Cyberattacks and cybercrimes: The new risks to global security; and Parliamentary efforts in achieving negative carbon balances of forests, to be considered by the Standing Committee on Sustainable Development. The members of the Forum will be invited to approve the appointment of a Rapporteur nominated by the Board of the Forum of Young Parliamentarians to provide a youth overview report on each of these subjects to the respective Standing Committee.

7. Any other business
