

Inter-Parliamentary Union
For democracy. For everyone.

Parliaments and Supreme Audit Institutions (SAIs) partnering for greater audit impact, oversight, and accountability
High-level virtual event – 4 October 2022

Draft Programme

Session 1

4 October 2022
08:30 – 08:45	Welcome Welcome remarks by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✓ Mr Martin Chungong, Secretary General, IPU</li><li>✓ Mrs. Einar Gørrissen, Director General INTOSAI Development Initiative</li></ul>
08:45 – 09:45	How have good SAI-parliament relations contributed to greater accountability?  Moderator: Mr Ingvar Mattson, Secretary General, Swedish Parliament Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✓ SAIs reporting to parliament: Good practices and international experiences HE MP Khalid AlMaskati, Chair Economic and Financial Affairs Committee Shura Council, Kingdom of Bahrain</li><li>✓ Parliamentary arrangements for co-operating with SAIs, including the functions of parliamentary committees: good practices and international experience Solomon Islands</li><li>✓ Communication between SAIs and parliaments Mr. Hussain Niyazy, Auditor General, SAI Maldives</li><li>✓ More effective SAI-Parliament cooperation in relation to follow-up Dr Mindaugas Macijauskas, Auditor General, SAI Lithuania</li></ul> Q&amp;A with participants
09:45 – 10:15	How can SAIs and parliaments advocate together for greater accountability?  This session will explore the way forward in building effective working relationships between SAIs and parliaments: Promoting good practice.  Interactive debate
10:15 – 10:25	Building capacity for public engagement  The IPU and IDI will present plans for capacity building for greater audit impact and accountability.
10:25 – 10:30	Wrap-up and close

Session 2

4 October 2022
16:00 – 16:15	Welcome Welcome remarks by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Mr Martin Chungong, Secretary General, IPU</li> <li>✓ Dr. Margit Kraker, Secretary General INTOSAI</li> </ul>
16:15 – 17:15	How have good SAI-parliament relations contributed to greater accountability? Moderator: Mrs Sue Winspear, Auditor General, Cayman Islands Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ SAIs reporting to parliament: Good practices and international experiences Mr Ibrahim Jimissa, Director, Department of the Parliamentary Budget Office, Sierra Leone</li> <li>✓ Parliamentary arrangements for co-operating with SAIs, including the functions of parliamentary committees: Good practices and international experience Mr Keiba Jacob, Senior Clerk, Public Accounts Committee, Trinidad, and Tobago</li> <li>✓ Communication between SAIs and parliaments Mr Jesus Rodriguez, President, Auditor General of the Republic of Argentina</li> </ul> Q&amp;A with participants
16:55 – 17:15
17:15 – 17:45	How can SAIs and parliaments advocate together for greater accountability? This session will explore the way forward in building effective working relationships between SAIs and parliaments: Promoting good practice. Interactive SAI discussant– First President Tavares, Court of accounts, Portugal
17:45 – 17:55	Building capacity for public engagement The IPU and IDI will present plans for capacity building for greater audit impact and accountability.
17:55 – 18:00	Wrap-up and close