

Inter-Parliamentary Union
For democracy. For everyone.

Fourth Expert Roundtable on the Common Principles for Support to Parliaments

Agile parliaments for the future

Virtual event – 15 December 2022

Draft programme: 14:00 – 15.30 (CET)

15 December 2022
14:00 – 14:05	Welcome and introduction to the Roundtable Remarks by: United Nations Development Programme
14:05 – 14:35	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In the last eight years, what have been the key achievements, impacts and challenges in applying the Common Principles by parliaments and partners? This first session will look back on the last eight years to consider successes and areas of difficulty for parliaments to apply the Common Principles. Moderator: European Parliament Presentations: German Bundestag Egypt Q&A with participants Participants will be invited to ask questions and share their good practices
14:35 – 15:25	Looking to the future and the rapidly evolving environments we all work in, what new priority needs for parliamentary development will emerge? What opportunities or threats should be considered?
	The second session will look ahead to exchange ideas on what future activities and products can be prioritized in the second decade of the Common Principles. In assessing the fast-changing parliamentary ecosystem, it will consider short-, medium-, and long-term actions that parliaments can carry out to manage institutional evolution in a changing environment. For example, in planning and implementing actions to better enable parliaments to iterate and nimbly respond to external developments in a manner that promotes and sustains innovation and resilience Moderator: IPU Presentations: Committee of the future, Finland Committee of the Future, General Assembly of Uruguay National Assembly of Zambia Q&A with participants Participants will be invited to ask questions and share their good practices
15:25 – 15:30	Wrap up and close