COMMUNICATION ADDRESSED TO THE IPU SECRETARY GENERAL
BY THE DELEGATIONS OF DENMARK, FRANCE, HUNGARY, IRELAND, PORTUGAL,
SWEDEN and UNITED KINGDOM

23 March 2024

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

Enclosed please find a proposal for an emergency item from the Danish IPU Group.

“Call for urgent action regarding the conflict in the Middle East”.

Yours sincerely,

(signed)

Peter RIIS
International Senior Adviser
Secretary to the Danish delegation to the IPU

CALL FOR URGENT ACTION REGARDING THE CONFLICT IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Explanatory memorandum submitted by the delegations of Denmark, France, Hungary,
Ireland, Portugal, Sweden, and United Kingdom

The current conflict between Israel and Palestine has created immense human suffering and global geopolitical instability. The scale of the humanitarian crisis and loss of life in Gaza and the enormity of the grievous acts of terror against the Israeli people must be immediately and constructively addressed by the Inter-Parliamentary Union.

To bring about an immediate and sustainable end to this suffering, we must immediately find a common starting point from which to begin, which is rooted in a shared desire to end human suffering.

This resolution proposes that this starting point be focused upon calling for an immediate ceasefire to protect civilians on all sides, the release of all hostages, the immediate and unimpeded delivery of essential humanitarian assistance, and respect for all relevant international laws.

The resolution's focus on these aspects alone recognizes that the complexity, division and geopolitics that surround the conflict have to date prevented action that could alleviate human suffering. It would allow for delegations to raise a multitude of these issues and positions during the debate while providing a clear call to action that would act as a starting point upon which Member Parliaments could act.

The 147th Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union failed to establish a unifying emergency resolution on this urgent situation. The civilians involved in this conflict cannot afford for the 148th Assembly to have the same outcome. We should leave united in a shared desire to end human suffering, not divided.

CALL FOR URGENT ACTION REGARDING THE CONFLICT
IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Draft resolution submitted by the delegations of DENMARK, FRANCE, HUNGARY, IRELAND
PORTUGAL, SWEDEN, and UNITED KINGDOM

The 148th Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union,

- (1) Recalling all relevant resolutions from multilateral institutions, international law, and international obligations,
- (2) Appalled by the scale of the humanitarian crisis and enormous loss of life in Gaza and the grievous acts of terror that the Israeli people faced on 7 October 2023,
- (3) Alarmed that the suffering continues to this day without a clear path to immediate action which would alleviate human suffering,
  1. Calls for an immediate ceasefire to protect civilians on all sides, the release of all hostages, the immediate and unimpeded delivery of essential humanitarian assistance, and respect for all relevant international laws.
