

Violations of the human rights of MPs in 2019

Cases examined by the IPU Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians

Inter-Parliamentary Union
For democracy. For everyone.

130
years of empowering parliamentarians

The IPU Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians is the only international complaints mechanism with the specific mandate to defend the human rights of persecuted parliamentarians.

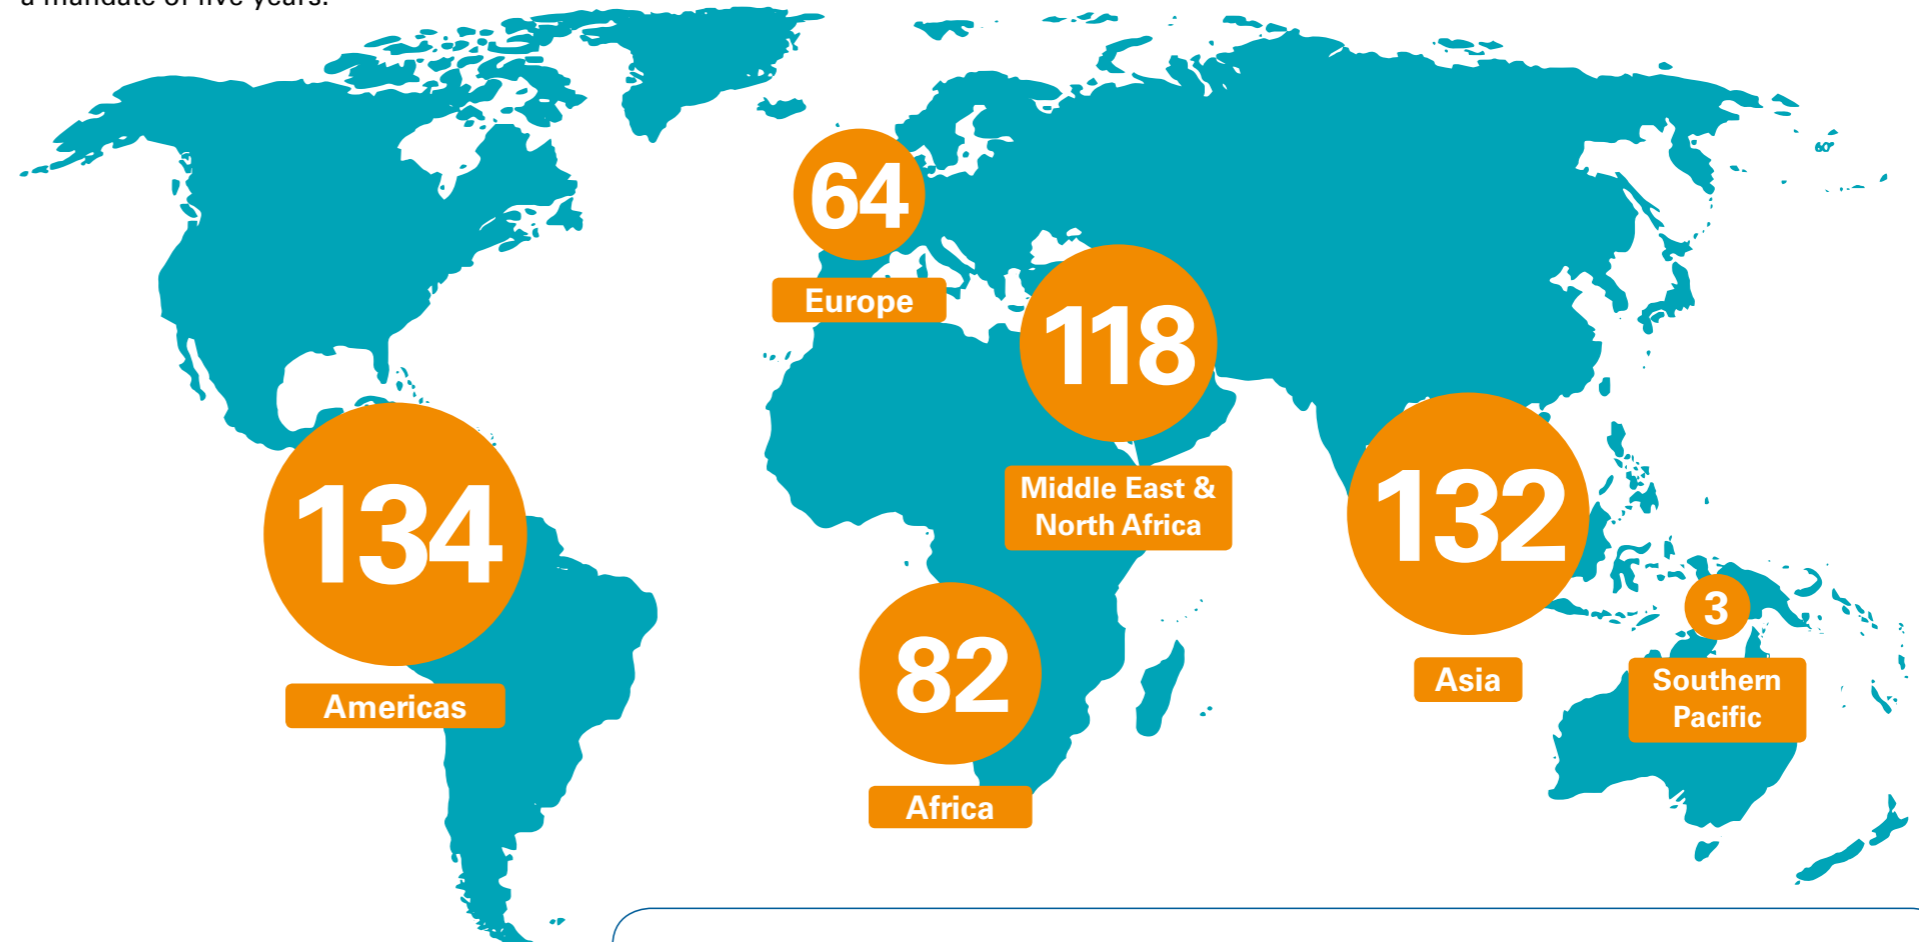

Its work includes mobilizing the international parliamentary community to support threatened MPs, lobbying national authorities, visiting MPs in danger and sending trial observers.

The Committee is made up of 10 parliamentarians, representing the various regions of the world, and elected by their peers for a mandate of five years.

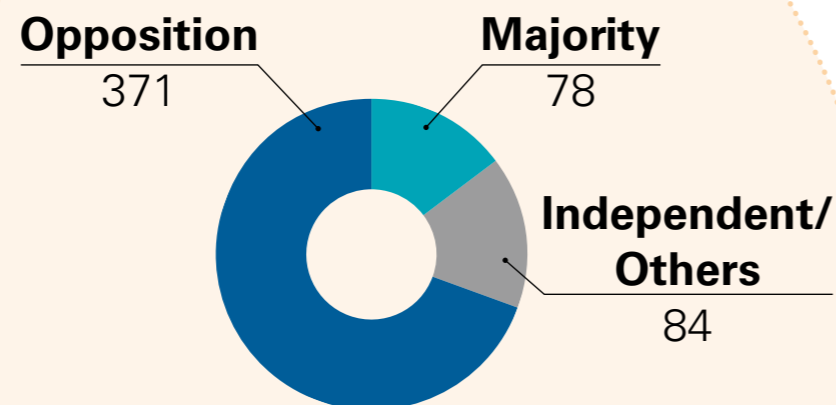

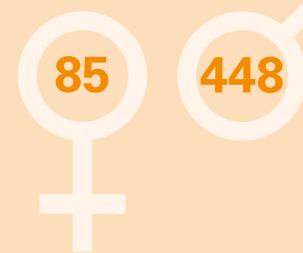

More information about Human Rights at the IPU
<https://www.ipu.org/our-impact/human-rights>

Most common violations

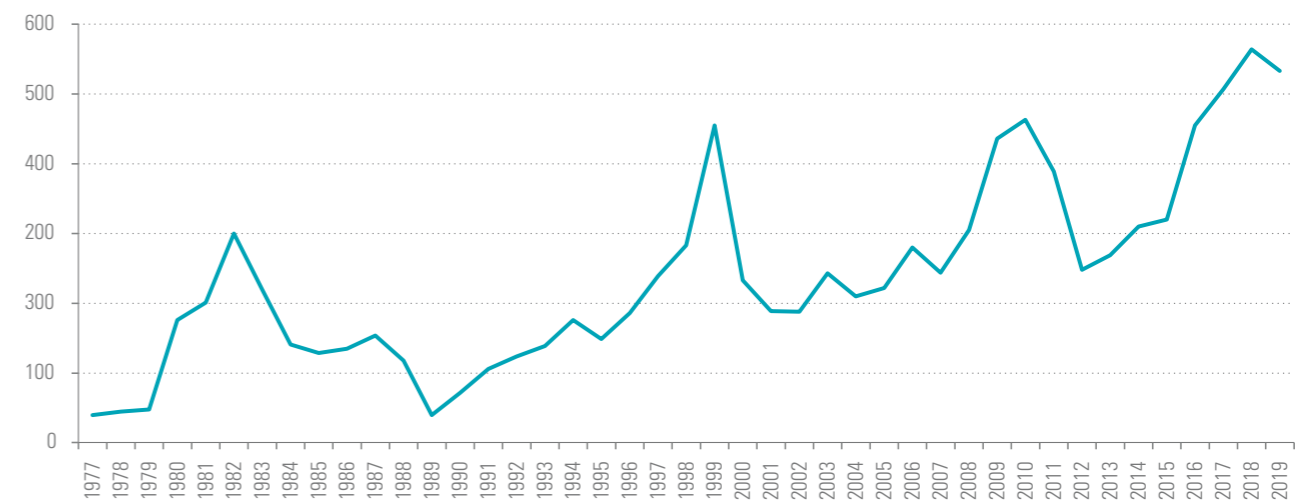

- 1 Undue suspension and loss of parliamentary mandate
- 2 Lack of fair trial and other unfair proceedings
- 3 Violation of freedom of expression
- 4 Threats, acts of intimidation

533 MPs in 40 countries

Number of MPs whose cases have been examined by the Committee since its creation

If you know of an MP in danger, contact us immediately on hrteam@ipu.org

FOLLOW US ON Twitter IPUparliament
Facebook InterParliamentaryUnion
Instagram ipu.parliament_official